Dear John:

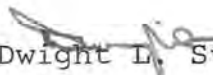

Thank you for the copy of your statement.

Several of us at lunch on Monday expressed the hope that you would be there so that we could ask you about Michigan State and the CIA. Frankly, no one could see why Michigan State should be held up to scorn because they cooperated with a branch of the United States government, particularly so when the service you were providing the government of South Viet Nam was sponsored, in part at least, by another branch of the government.

I am happy to have a copy of your statement so that I can answer other people when they inquire. At lunch we were all sure you would have an excellent statement, and I believe you have.

Sincerely yours
