

DEPARTMENT OF STATE
WASHINGTON

August 1, 1958

Dear Wes:

Thank you for your letter of July 25. I thoroughly enjoyed our discussion, and I am sure Bill Nunley did too. I am sorry only that it was so brief. In addition to the benefits which you and your colleagues feel you received from our talk, I think it is useful for those of us who are actually caught in the whirlwind of current negotiations and policy-making to be able to sit down occasionally and think about some of the broad problems affecting the future of our diplomatic establishment. In any case, I am very pleased that you believe some of our ideas will be helpful.

Sincerely,

Foy Kohler
Deputy Assistant Secretary for European Affairs

Professor Wesley R. Fishel,
Chairman, International Aspects of Politics Study Seminar,
Michigan State University,
East Lansing, Michigan.