Dear Ngoc:

I am terribly sorry that my wife's illness prevented me from getting to the campus to see you last Saturday. However, I received your most interesting letter from Port Austin (and the front page clipping, a copy of which I am sending to Dr. Smuckler in Saigon), and I have spoken with Mr. Stoutenberg so I know what an exiting and wonderful experience your visit must have been, both for you and for your hosts. I am sure they will never forget it.

It has been extremely enjoyable having you here at Michigan State University, and I hope that someday we will have the opportunity of welcoming you here once more. In the meantime, I hope the coming year will be one of great happiness and success for you, and I shall look forward to seeing you if I am able to visit Vietnam again in 1959.

Sincerely,

WRF:ms
