Dr. J. HANNAH , President
Michigan State College
East Lansing
Michigan

Dear Sir,

In this personal letter, I wish to express to you my sincere thanks for the cooperation you have given us in the sending of the first team of American professors, headed by Dr. E. WEIDNER, to explore the possibilities of American technical expert help to our Government.

Myself and others members of my Government, we are quite pleased to have the occasion to welcome the four professors from Michigan State College, whom you have kindly released from their teaching duties at the College to let them come to Vietnam. We are also sure that their two-week survey here will bring out very useful recommendations and suggestions concerning the reorganization of the main agencies in the Vietnamese Government. We only regret that it has not been possible for them to stay longer in Vietnam.

I take this occasion also to thank you in a special way for making it possible for Dr. WESLEY FISHEL to stay in Vietnam until now, despite the many obligations he has at the Michigan State College. During his stay here, he has been most useful to my Government, and I hope that in the near future it will be possible for him to come back to Vietnam.

With my best wishes for you, dear Sir, I am,

Yours sincerely,

NGO DINH DIEM, President
National Government of Vietnam
