President John A. Hannah
Michigan State University
East Lansing, Michigan

Dear John:

I send you an adverse editorial in The Evening Bulletin for April 29. We have just one paper in the state and it publishes not only the Bulletin, but the Providence Journal in the morning. It is, on the whole, an excellent newspaper, although its policies regarding local news leave much to be desired; but it is a very liberal publication. It wields a good deal of influence in the state. You might wish to have your public relations department prepare a letter to the editor, answering the editorial.

With all good wishes,

Cordially,

Francis H. Horn
President
