Dear Selma:

By this time you should have heard from Jane (although I believe I may have given her the wrong number on your street). As I told Ruth, I cannot imagine how two letters from me could have been lost. You must change Postmen so frequently that they never get a chance to learn the neighborhood!

In any case, I would be happy to speak to the Study Club on the 27th of April. You may use THE REBIRTH OF VIETNAM as a title if you wish, or, if you prefer, VIETNAM: FARTHERMOST OUTPOST OF THE FREE WORLD. Either will cover what I will say.

As for myself, I shall send you a brief biographical sketch the beginning of next week, so you will be sure to have it in plenty of time.

Jane joins in sending very best wishes to you and Charlie.

Cordially,

Wesley R. Fishel
