

Dear Wes - I've been meaning to write you for weeks, in order to commend to your experience and wise counsel an old friend of mine, Arthur Gardiner, who has recently come to Saigon as second in command of USOM. By now of course you know him, and I owe apologies to both of you for the tardiness of this letter. But I'm writing anyway, partly for the pleasure of passing the time of day with you and partly because Arthur's wife Emily dined with us last night and it was once more borne in on me that she should have a letter on her own account.
She is a perfect dear, of great energy and intelligence and utter integrity. She will be a great asset to the forces of righteousness in Vietnam, where thank goodness you seem to be still ahead. You should feel very proud of yourself to have played so notable a part in this amazing renaissance.

Myself, I have come back to the ICA fold and am about to take off for Afghanistan that you will give me a shout if you come this way.

Ever good wish, to "evaluate" the country program there. I wish there was a chance of stopping in to see you the way home, but I shall be pinched by the requirement to get back for a child's graduation and will return via Europe. But I will be in Washington most of the summer and hope
