

SAIGON July 8, 1957

Dear Dr. Hannah,

I reflect with great pleasure upon my visit in the United States, and one of its most satisfying highlights was the day I spent in your company at Michigan State University.

I was deeply moved, Dr. Hannah, by the honor your great institution of learning bestowed upon me. I shall treasure this memory as an expression of the University's good will toward me and my country. I was touched by the warmth and friendliness with which your people treated me. It was all so human and so very heart-warming, and I am grateful to you for the great experience.

Thank you once again Dr. Hannah, for all you did to make my visit to East Lansing a memorable occasion.

Sincerely,

Dr. John A. HANNAH
