

Countryfellows,

Out of patriotism, we had joined the resistant movement since 1945.

From 1945 to 1948 we had forced village inhabitants to do sabotage works: destroying bridges roads etc. Many of them had to leave the village in search of security in the towns of whom several were caught and punished severely by us. For, at that time, being blind with the communist propoganda, we did not care for whether <sup>was</sup> what were doing ~~w~~rong or right.

In 1949 we were caught by French troups and underwent savage torture. Our wives and children were on the verge of starving, yet the communist did not give them the least help.

Released in 1950 and realizing the communist real face we surrendered to the national government and enjoyed a peaceful life ever since.

The election of President Diem as President of Republic of Viet Nam has raised a new faith in our heart.

Country-fellows,

Let us denounce the communists who are still in our place to the local authorities. By so doing we are contributing to insurance of our own security.

Long live the Republic of Viet-Nam

Long live President Ngô-Đình-Diệm
