Mr. Stuart P. Lillico, Press Officer, Department of State (Mr. James Denison)

The members of the official party and their faculty contacts for the evening will meet a few minutes before 8:30 in the Red Cedar Room.

The object of the faculty contact system is to provide the visitors with someone who knows something about our Vietnam project and about the University and who can serve to introduce the visitors to various persons attending the reception.

Faculty contacts will stay with the members of the official party throughout the hours of the reception, from 8:30 - 10:00 p.m.

NOTE ON ARRANGEMENTS FOR RECEPTION

Robert Geist has arranged for Vietnamese and American music to be piped into the two rooms during the reception.

Robert Scigliano is in charge of the Vietnamese cultural exhibit, which will be located in the Centennial Room. Items for the exhibit have been obtained from the Vietnamese Embassy, from Vietnamese students, and from Michigan State University staff members returned from Vietnam.

Wives of administrative officials and wives who have been in Vietnam will share the "pouring" honors during the reception.

Mortar Board will usher and will provide two introducers at the beginning of the reception line.
